SIX FINE CONTESTS.

Racing at Pimlico-Fairview Leads Off as Winner.

Followed by King Fan, Tolu, Clonmel, Col. Sprague, and Jim Nelson.

No Great Amount of Money in the Pool Boxes-To-Day's Races.

Thoroughbreds on the Track-The Pools To-Day.

BALTIMORE, May 25.—The attendance at the Pimlico races to-day was just as large as that of yesterday, while the weather was warmer and the track in excellent condition. The failure of the Chesapeake stakes to produce a race was disappointing, for which the other five good races in a measure atoned. The success of King Fan over Antrim in the second race, while not a surprise, was well second race, while not a surprise, was well received, as also was the victory of Clonmel over Flower of Meath, while the easy manner in which Col. Sprague won the handicap proved the confidence of his backers. Judges, O. Bowie, Wash Booth, and T. W. Doswell, Gistance judges, E. Law Rogers and Donald Swan; timers, F. M. Hall and R. C. Hall; starter, J. Wynn; secretary, J. D. Ferguson. First race, Chesspeake stakes, for fillies then three years old; $50 subscription; only $15 if declared May 1, 1882, and $30 if declared Jan. I, 1883; club to add $500, of which $100 to the second horse. One mile and a quarter. Bessie and Fairview were the only starters. No time; no pools or betting; walk over, as each is the property of O. Bowie. When reaching the half-mile pole they began to race, running side by side. Fairview crossed the wire first by a few inches.

KING FAN WINS. Second race, for three-year-olds, 1 mile, seiling allowances, 87 pounds to be the minimum weight. Purse, $400 for the first; $100 for the second horse.

King Fan, Antrim, Aima D, and Golden
Piover were the starters. Pools—Antrim $50, King Fan $40, field $15. In the books there was King Fan $40, field $15. In the books there was 7 to 10 against Antrim, 6 to 1 against Alma D, 8 to 5 against King Fan and 8 to 1 against Ciolden Plover. Mutuals paid $16.30.

The race.—King Fan tookiche lead to a good start, followed by Alma D, Golden Plover, and Antrim. At the quarter Alma D went to the front, followed by King Fan, the other two even. At the half King Fan had fallen away last, Antrim at the same moment taking the lead. King Fan again began to improve and at seven furlongs had headed Antrim, who was hugging him closely, as also was Golden Plover. King Fan shook them off and won by two lengths, Antrim second, eight lengths in front of Golden Plover. Time, 1:45.

TOLU THE VICTOR.

TOLU THE VICTOR. Third race, Clabaugh memorial stakes, half mile, for two-year-olds; $100 subscription, half forfeit. Club to add $600, of which $100 to the second horse, the third horse to save to the second horse, the third horse to save its stake. Colts to earry 100 pounds, fillies and geldings allowed 3 pounds; eleven subscribers. The following started; Emigrant, Target colt, Equipoise, Toin, Flyway, Unknown, and Chignon colt. Pools—Toln, $50; Unknown, $16; Flyway, $10; field, $35. In the book, even money against Tolu, 3 to 1 Chignon colt, 5 to 1 Flyway, 5 to 1 Unknown, and 8 to 1 against the balance. Mutuals paid $11.15.

The short distance and the fact that seven two-year-olds faced the starter caused some delay. They were, however, sent away in excellent style, Tolu leading the entire journey, although he was closely pressed in the stretch by the Chignon colt and Unknown. Tolu won by a length, with Unknown second, a length in front of Chignon colt, CLONMEL IN THE LEAD. Fourth race, one mile for all ages, welter weights; purse $400 to first, $100 to second. Logan, Flower of Meath, Pacha, Cloumel, and Medusa started. Pools, Flower of Meath $60, Cloumel $30, and the field $32. In the books there was 4 to 5 against Fiower of Meath, 2 to 1 against Clonnel, 5 to 1 against Medusa, 8 to 1 against Logan, and 10 to 1 against Pacha. Mutuals paid

Clonmel took the lead to a good start, but was quickly passed by Medusa, who set out to make the running. Medusa led by three lengths at the quarter, and by one length at the half. At the three-quarters Clonmel had which lead he increased down the stretch, whining easily by six lengths, Flower of Meath second, fully twenty-five yards ahead of Pacha. Time, 1:452. gone to the front, and was leading by a head,

Pools—Col. Sprague, $35; Infanta, $20;
Camilius, $17; field, $17. In the books there was 6 to 5 against Col. Sprague, 2 to 1 against Infanta, 4 to 1 against Camillus, 5 to 1 against Ranger, and 8 to 1 against Joker. Mutual paid $12,55.

Infanta, Joker, and Col. Sprague showed in Infanta, Joker, and Col. Sprague showed in the order mentioned at the start. As they passed the stand Joker went into the lead, followed by Infanta and Banger. Joker led to the half mile pole where he, Ranger, and Infanta were very close together. At the three-quarters Col. Spragne went to the front, and staying there, wen a good race by a and staying there, won a good race by a length, with Infanta second, nearly same dis-tance ahead of Camillus. Time, 2:12‡.

JIM NELSON BEATS HARTFORD. Sixth race.—Heats, one and an eighth mile, all ages. Purse, $600 to first, $100 to second. Jim Nelson and Hartford.

First heat.—Pools, Hartford, $65; Jim Nelson, $50. In the books there were 3 to 5 against Hartford, and even money against Jim Nelson. There was a good start, but before the stand was reached Jim Nelson had taken a decided advantage, which he re tained to the end, winning easily by a length

A STEAMER BLOWN UP.

About Fourteen Lives Lost in California-Details of the Disaster.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The stern wheel steamer Pilot blew up this morning. She had been running for some years past in opposition to steamers of the San Francisco and North Pacific Railroad company. The explosion occurred near Lakeville, a mile above Donahue, landing on an arm of the bay knewn as Petaluma creek. No details knewn as Petaluma creek. No details could be obtained until nearly 3 p. m. Then a report was received stating "all the forward part of the boat was blown "all the forward part of the boat was blown away and the after part floated 300 yards and then grounded. Two persons were killed, seven woulded, and eleven are missing and supposed to be drowned. Mrs. McNear is missing, but her baby was saved. The wreck is almost inaccessible." Officers of the steamer Donahue report that when passing Donahue landing they noticed the Pilot coming down the creek in midchannel. A few minutes afterward they saw no signs of the incoming steamer. The rumor spread that a terrible disaster had occurred, and the chief engineer of the Donahue is reported as havengineer of the Donabue is reported as hav-ing said he saw an explosion or a cloud of steam and smoke. The Donabue drew ing said he saw an explosion or a cloud of steam and smoke. The Donahue drew too much water for navigation above the landing levee, and she did not go to the wreck. A message was sent to Petalum, directing a relief train with physicians and nurses for wounded to be immediately dispatched to Lakeville. When the relief train arrived the surgeons on board found little to do, as of all of those hown and believed to be on board none but the captain and two others, one the pilot, could be found. They were discovered in the fields seriously injured. Search was made in every direction near the bank, and one after another four more were found. All were seriously injured, some with an arm or leg broken. The last reports received show that eight are killed, seven wounded, and ten missing. Most of the missing are probably dead. The names of the passengers cannot be definitely ascertained as no names are recorded at the points of departure. One family of twelve were on board bound for Arizona.

passengers cannot be definitely ascertained as no names are recorded at the points of departure. One family of twelve were on board bound for Arizona.

The officers and crew of the vessel were S. F. Graves, master; Horace Bell, mate; Charles Farmer, pilot; A. Hawes, steward; a cabin boy; N. Silva, engineer; Thomas Crawford, fireman; Gwinn and Shedder, deck hands; Peter McCabley, Richmond, John Laman, and an unknows man, shipped yesterday. It is thought many of the passengers who escaped scalding and mangling were drowned, as the boat sunk immediately after the explosion. The explosion is attributed to defective boilers.

Later dispatches state that Mr. Mathews, late of Sonoma mountain, on his way to Arizona, lost four children and another will die. His wife is crazy. Mr. Hegler, who had just purchased property here, was killed. The most extraordinary incident in connection with the disaster was the finding of Mrs. Geo. P. McNear, a passenger, about a mile and a balf from the seven of the explosion. She

P. McNear, a passenger, about a mile and a half from the scene of the explosion. She was standing in the mud still alive, but un-conscious. It is presumed she struggled through the mud and weeds for that distance in search of relief. She was immediately re-moved to Lakeville, but died soon after ar-rival. She was a niece of G. W. McNear, a grain merchant of this city.

TRIED TO KILL HIMSELF.

A Baltimore Merchant Attempts His Own Life-He Makes Horrible Work of It

BALTIMORE, May 25 .- A horrible attempt at self-destruction was made this morning by Mr. Jacob Leffert, residing at No. 170 St. Mary street, by slashing his throat with a pocket knife, inflicting several gashes, including one four inches in length. He showed signs of mental derangement last night, but nothing was thought of it by his immediate family. At an early hour this morning he left the house and went to his stable, located in the rear and went to his atable, located in the rear of his dwelling, and remaining an extra long time Mrs. Leffert became alarmed and went in search of him. Upon opening the stable door she was horrified at seeing her husband lying in a stall bleeding profusely from a severe wound in his throat. The was found clutched tightly in his hand. For tunately the penknife was dull, and there-fore provented, what he evidently pro-posed to do, that of severing the jugular vein. The gentleman had been suffering from malaria since January last, which com pletely baffled the skill of the physicians, who were called in to attend him. It is sup-posed that the disease had a depressing effect on his brain, and was evidently the cause of the suicidal act. The physicians state that with proper care he may probably recover, but the chances are against him. Mr. Leffert is a successful business man in Baltimore, and carries on an extensive furniture manufact-uring establishment. He is apparently about O years of age, and has a wife and several children.

It was early this morning when he retired and he did not get up for breakfast until a late honr. It was said that he would remain at the Fifth Avenue hetel as quietly as possible to-day, and that none but his intimate friends would be admitted to see him.

NEW YORK, May 25.—Among those who called on President Arthur to-day at the Fifth Avenue hetel were William M. Evarts, Henry Villard, Perry Belmont, Judge Gresham, Jesse Seligman, and Roscoe Conkling. In the evening the President was dined at the University club by Mr. Willard Bartlett, The other guests were George Bliss, Elihu Root, Surrogate Kollins, Mayor Low, of Brooklyn, Charles A. Dana, William Dowd, Chauncey M. Depew, Judge Richard O. Gor-Chauncey M. Depew, Judge Richard O. Gor-man, Robert Bonner, Judge Henry J. Cullen, Salem H. Wales, Franklin Bartlett, William H. Buffum, Thomas Hitchcock, and Sherma W. Knevals.

Railway Accident in Virginia. ALEXANDRIA, VA., May 25 .- An accident occurred on the Virginia Midland railway last night, by which three men were seriously injured. As the fast northward freight train was nearing Shortie's bridge, between Charlottesville and Orango Court House, an axie broke, throwing four cars off the track and down an embankment. The conductor was badly hurt, Inspector Rudd had an arm broken, and a brakeman was seriously in-jured. The wreck was soon cleared away and trains are passing on time.

Crook Whips the Indians.

TOMBSTONE, May 25 .- A trustworthy man just arrived here from a ranch in Sonora says a courier from headquarters has brought news of an engagement between Gen. Crook and a large body of Indians near Guacanope in the Sierra Madres last week, in which thirty hostiles were killed, and the rest put to fight closely followed by the troops.

THE CRUSHED BOURBONS.

Coalitionist Gains Throughout the State of Virginia.

Presaging an Overwhelming Readjuster Victory in the Fall.

The Strongholds of Bourbon Democracy Give Way to Rotting Among the Miners in Illinois-

the Progressive Element.

The Result in Many Places Surprising to the Democrats-The Victory Gained.

Special Dispatch. RICHMOND, VA., May 25.-There is considerable interest manifested here in the elections in the different counties of the state, and the returns show that in nearly all the counties in which party lines were drawn the readjusters were successful. Returns re-ceived to-night indicate that Dezendorf has been beaten for treasurer of Norfolk county by more than 300. The news from the south west is very encouraging, and shows large readjuster gains, as well as decided victories in Wythe, the home of Atty. Gen. Blair; Smythe, Washington, and Henry countles. Abram Fulkerson's county went readjuster, as did also John W. Daniel's precinct in Lynchburg. In all the counties where the white vote is the largest the readjusters have made great gains, and have redeemed several counties that here tofore gave bourbon majorities. Shenandoah the home of Senator Riddleberger, gave a general majority of 600 for the readjuster ticket, and H. C. Allen was beaten by 900 ma-jority by R. C. Walker, readjuster candidate for commonwealth's attorney. A special from Lexington tells of a victory for the readjusters in Rockbridge, and that Reveley (read juster) will be the next treasurer.

DEZENDORF'S FUNERAL. NORPOLK, VA., May 25 .- Dezendorf one more buried. Lyons, readjuster, elected over him for treasurer of Norfolk county although he formed a coalition with the bourbon dem ocrats. How long is this political corpse to afflict our people by his stench?

Special Dispatch:
WOODSTOCK, VA., May 25.—Yesterday's elections developed much interest in the old tenth legion counties, and were contested upon strict party lines. Shenandoah and Page counties constitute the senatorial district which Riddleberger represented in the legislature when he was elected United States senator. Both counties give large and increased majorities for the readjuster candidates, and in Shenandoah especially the bourbon defeat is overwhelming. There is no concealment by the bourbons of their chagrin over a result which foreshadows readjuster success next fall in the valley counties, and indorses the leadership of Riddleberger.

IN DANVILLE. Special Dispatch.

DANVILLE, VA.; May 25.—The contest inthis (Pittsylvania) county was very saiadjusters, put out their best and strongest men, and a warm canvass has been conducted. The result in the county shows the successoft the democratic ticket by a majority ranging from 1,200 to 1,600. The election was quet throughout the entire county. The call of the county shows the successoft that the successoft the democratic ticket by a majority ranging from 1,200 to 1,600. The election was quet throughout the entire county. The call of the county shows the successoft that the successor is a successor of the county shows the county shows the successor of the county shows the throughout the entire county. The following are the successful candidates: W. I. Overley, sheriff; G. T. Rison, commonwealth's attorney; J. R. Whitchead, treasurer. There was no election in this city. Our municipal contest takes place only once in two years. The election for the town of North Danville resulted in the election of W. A. Baugh, denocrat, for mayor. The entire democratic ticket was successful.

THE RESULT IN LYNCHBURG. Special Dispatch.

LYNCHBURG, May 25.—Yesterday what a called local elections were held all over the state for city and county officers. In the city only members of the common coun-and aldermen had to be chosen, but in all the counties a much larger list had to elected, from commonwealth's attorney a clerk down to supervisor and constab Sufficient information has not yet be received from the counties to determine the general result in the state nor will we be fully informed for some day to come; but the result in this city was vorable to the democrats by a small major in two out of the three wards, which conne two out of the three wards, which continues the city government in the hands of the same party which has always held it herebfore, though the coalititonists gained ope ward by a large majority, and has five out of the fifteen members of the court had four out of the twelve aldly mid. Which they need had before mid. four out of the twelve aldry mid. which they never had before. The concest was the hotest ever held in the city, and was so slose when the polis cless that many of the comocrats gave up in dapair. There was no disorder, and a vey large vote was polled by both sides. Campbell, Amhurst, and Bedfore have gone democratic as heretofore, and Rosache and Washington have gone for the coalitionists as formerly, Rosanoke by 400 majority.

MORE RETURNS.

By Associated Press. NORFOLK, May 25.—The election returns time 2:251. from the neighboring counties indicate con-siderable losses by the Mahone coalition ticket 260 majority.

HARRISONBURG, VA., May 25 .- Twenty out of twenty-four precincts in this county give Harrison (coallition nominee), for common-wealth's attorney, 372 majority. This will be increased to 450.

The coalitionists elect 4 out of 5 supervisors and 4 out of 5 commissioners of revenue The coalitionist majorty in the county last fall was 630.

fall was 630.

Peterseurg, Va., May 25.—Election returns from the different towns and counties of the state are coming in very slowly. In Prince George county the democratic tierly, is elected by about 130 majority. Matona and Winfree's store, precincts in Chesterfiolic county, give democratic majorities. Ettrick, a precinct in the same county, gives a roadjuster majority. Appomatics county is reported to have gone for the readjusters. A light vote has been polled, but great interest is felt throughout the state in the result of the election. There were both white and colored caudidates for the different offices.

Lynchrurg, May 25.—Returns from the LYNCHRURG May 25.—Returns from the continuestern counties are meager. Washing-on county (Fulkerson's home) elects the en-ton county (Fulkerson's home) elects the entire readjuster ticket, except treasurer. Pittsylvania, Bedford, Campbell, Amherst, Nelson, Botetourt, Patrick, and probably Rockbridge, go democratic. Rosnoke, Montgomery, and Wythe elect readjusters.

PETRIESURG, May 25.—Appomattox, Prince Edward, Nottoway, Sussex, and Isle of Wight counties elected a coalition ticket. In Isle of Wight counties elected a coalition ticket. In Isle of Wight counties elected a coalition ticket. In Isle of Wight counties elected sheriff. Nansemond elects the democratic ticket by about 900 majority. The negroes voted solidly with the democratis. Farmville give a democratic victory. Dinwiddie county, as far as learned, the state, particularly tide water counties, show gratifying gains for the democrats, although returns do not generally announce whether a large or small yote was cast. The whether a large or small vote was cast. The readjusters, however, claim that they have gained largely, particularly in the white counties, while in counties with colored majorities, they have had some losses through means of split tickets. With such conflicting statements, and the fact that not one third of the state is heard from, it is impossible to give a satisfactory summary of results.

A HOWLING MOB.

The Strikers Desperate.

St. Louis, May 25,-A Post-Dispatch special from Collinsville, Ill., says the situation today is more strained than it was yesterday. Not a mine or the Vandalia railway between East St. Louis and Troy is in operation. They are all closely watched by strikers. Mayor Stevens last night ordered the saloons closed at 8 o'clock, and swore in a force closed at 8 o'clock, and swore in a force of fifty deputies. As the drunkenness increased among the miners, eighteen or twenty shots were fired about midnight in a spirit of deviltry. At 2 o'clock a.m., 300 striking miners assembled near the Abbey mines. They ascertained that the men driven off yesterday had not returned. They detailed fifty men to remain and see that ino attempt was made to start up, and about 200 started east on the railway track. A picket was left at No.3. When Collinsville was reached they were told no attempt at work would be made to-day. They then started for the Confidence and Troy mines. A conspicuous feature of the promines. A conspicuous feature of the pro-cession was half a dozen men carrying kegs of beer upon their shoulders. No work is being done at the Confidence mines, but the strikers are suspicious. Upwards of 100 stopped there, beer was tapped, and scenes of disorder ensued.

Superintendent Weisenburg telegraphed to Deputy Sheriff Lanheim that his property was surrounded by a howling mob and in danger and called for assistance. At Belle-ville and Carcyville the miners were joined by a strong delogation from the mines on the Ohio and Mississippi read.

The Base Ball Record.

The contest for the league championship is particularly close and exciting. Cleveland, Detroit, and Providence are tied for first place, with 11 games won and 5 lost, Chicago has won 11 games and lost 6, Buffalo has won 8 and lost 6, Boston has won 4 and lost 12, New York has won 4 and lost 13, This summary includes the games played yester-

Archbishop Croke exhorted the people not to Archosanop Croke exincted the people not to allow a word of condemnation to escape their lips against the pope, who he said was their best friend. When the archbishop was in Rome the pope addressing him said: "I am as good an Irishman as you ate." The arch-bishop expressed his intention of obeying the pope's commands. DUBLIN, May 25.—Archbishop Croke in his remarks at Thurles yesterday said the pope spoke to him concerning the menacing state of Europe, and said he feared that even in Ireland, which had been a great consolation to him, a spirit of lawiessness had seized upon a large section of the people. The archbishop said he assured him there was no lawlessness in his diocese, and that no notable crime had been committed there. He said all the pope blamed the Irish people for was the crimes which both he (the archbishop) and his flock had always done their utmost to denounce. On parting the pope gave Archbishop Croke his blessing, and assured him of his good wishes. After the archbishop had concluded his speech crowds of people with bands paraded through the streets of the town. LONDON, May 25.—The landing of the French in Madagascar has surprised the Malagasy envoys, who state the natives will fight the French to the death. Some of the members of the embassy will hasten home to assist in the defense of their country. Many rifles, newly purchased, are on their way to Madagascar, and are now nearly due. The queen of Madagascar will issue a war loan. It is hoped that Americans and English will asis hoped that Americans and English will assist with money and arms.

Moscow, May 25.—The banquet on Sunday

Moscow, May 25.—The banquet on Sunday will be a magnificent affair. On the emperor's signal a minister will present the guests with medals commemorating the coronation. The following is a list of the toasts: "His Majesty, the Emperor," to be followed by a salvo of 61 guns; "Her Majesty, the Empress," followed by 51 guns; "The Imperial Family," followed by 31 guns; and "The Clergy and All Faithful Subjects," followed by 21 guns.

by 21 guns.

Copies of the proclamation of the coronation, printed tastefully on satin paper, were hurled into the midst of the crowd, which struggled desperately to obtain them. Many believed that possession of a copy would en-title them to land and a fortune. Some of the policemen narrowly escaped being crushed. Untorn copies of the proclamation realized

Most of the money belonged to foreigners, who are using every effort to induce their governments to order the Italian and English men-of-war to capture the dictator when he leaves and com pel him to refund the money. He is expected to vanish at the first chance with all his spoil, and once out of the country nothing can be wrung from him. His men begin to desert. The outposts stationed at any distance from the town uniformly take flight. Alfaro's troops are encamped about five miles from Guayaquil, and from a hill behind the city their huts are clearly visible. Against Co-lombia the dictator's adherents are intensely oitter. The Colombians have a horror of any thing resumbling a dictatorship, and for this reason they strongly sympathize with Alfaro,

A Chat With Members of the Historic Old 5th Virginia, En Route Home from Niagara,

One Result of the Recent Return of the Colors of the 28th New York.

On the ninth of August, 1862, at the battle of Cedar Mountain, the colors of the 28th New York were captured by the 5th Virginiaa regiment of the famous Stonewa'l brigad Some years ago this flag was sent to Washington. Hearing this the 28th New York opened correspondence with the 5th Virginia on the subject, and the result was a trip on the part of the latter regiment to Niagara Falls, N. Y., and the formal delivery of the colors to the 28th New York. The visiting party of the 5th Virginia-was composed of some 80 soldiers and 73 civilians, 153 in rll. Of all that famous regiment, not more than about 130 men are living, and heuce more than one-half participated in the excursion. They started from near Staunton, Va., about 2 o'clock p. m. last Saturday, layed over in Baltimore on Sunday, and when stopping at Williamsport on Monday for breakfast received a telegram from Col. Brown, of the 28th New York, telling them he would meet the party at Canandaigua for dinner. At Canandaigua Col. Brown, Capt. and Mrs. Paddelford, Capt. and Mrs. Paddelford, Capt. and Miss Bowen met them. The Virginians took dinner as guests of the New Yorkers, and immediately afterward started for Niagara Falls, which they reached at 5:30 p. m. On Tuesday, at 11:50 o'clock, the ceremony of presenting the flag took place at the opera house in Prospectus park, in the presence of a crowded assembly. The 28th New York, of whom but a dozen or so remain, were there in a body. Maj. Newton, of the 5th Virginian, made the presentation speech, and Col. Brown responded. The Virginians were then taken good care of until next day, when they set out on their return trip. Thursday night the entire party put up at the Trement house, in Washington, and will leave for home this morning.

A Republican representative called on the Virginians yesterday, and found Messre. J. B. Roller and J. M. Foley, of Mount Crawford, Rockingham county, "at home."

"How did you like your trip?" asked The Republican representative.

"First rate," answered Mr. Foley. "We were treated in the kindest manner."

"You and they think the war is over then?" inquired the reporter.

"Fully, judging from the universal kind ness and courtesy shown us by everybody," said Mr. Roller. "The ceremony of presenting the flag was one of the most pathetic acues I have over witnessed. Old memories and associations brought tears to many an eye in that assembly. When the colors were handed over, Capt. Bowen took and kissed them, and the tears streamed down his cheek. It was a touching sight and brought out at the best there was in one's manhood."

"How long did you stay at Niagara Falls," Until the next day at 2 o'clock p. m. And all during that while the people took u.s. in charge and took good care of us, I assure

"You think then that there is no lingering spirit of bitterness leit?"
"None at all," said Mr. Foley. "Certainly not the slighest among the men who fought on either side. In fact, there never was among the soldiers. We had fought each other for four years, and long before the war closed had a mutual respect for each other.
All the bitterness was caused by some of those who didn't do any of the fighting. And then there was a great deal of ignorance of each other on the part of both southerners and northerner. If you live a long way from anybody, and don't know anything of or about him, you are apt to have mistaken ideas concerning him. The improvement to the confidence of the contract of the co cerning him. The ignorance is too often timid, and timidity magnifics a stranger's had qualities while diminishing his good ones. Some of our people said to us just before we started, "I wonder you are not afraid to go up there! It is a trap these Yankees are fixing up for you. They'll run the cars off at some place. The Yankees despise you." And I told them we had met and fought these very men, and knew something about these very men, and knew something about them while the stay-at-home people had never fought nor known them.

"If it was a trap," said Mr. Roller, re-flectively, "its just the kind of trap I like to get in."
"The people north," continued Mr. Foley, "were very kind to us. Rather sl. gular, I thought, but they manifested a design to get some confederate money. Some of the toys happened to have some old birls about them iich we presented." "I had a bill," said Mr. Roller, "and a party "I had a bill," said Mr. Roller, "and a party from whom I made some trifling purchases asked me if I had any more. I went down into my pockets and found a $2 bill, which he wanted to buy. I told him it wasn't worth anything, but finally I took my purchases, about forty-five cents worth, and he took the bill, calling it square. We intend," said Mr. Felev, "to get up a greater regular said Mr. Foley, "to get up a grand reunion said Mr. Foley," to get up a grand reunion near Staunton of the Stonewall brigade and the federal troops with whom the origined came into direct conflict. We propose to get it up next fall, and should we not be able to the rederat troops with variable to get it up next fall, and should we not be able to do so by that time we shall have it on t e twenty-second of next May, the time of the annual reunion of the New York 28th."

"When do you start homeward?"

"The more row morning."

"To-morrow morning."
